2020-2021 Catalog Addendum

Correction: The 2020-21 AAFA was incorrectly posted in the college catalog as a single degree with emphases in Art, Dance, Music or Theatre. However, since their inception, the Associate in Arts, Fine Arts (AAFA)-Art, Associate in Arts, Fine Arts (AAFA)-Dance, and Associate in Arts, Fine Arts (AAFA)-Theatre have been individual awards. The Associate in Arts (AA), Emphasis in Music was approved to be offered effective Fall 2019, and the Associate in Arts (AA), Emphasis in Musical Theatre was approved to be offered effective Fall 2020. Corrected AAFA awards follow. The AA, Emphasis in Music and AA, Emphasis in Musical Theatre adhere to the AA degree requirements published in the catalog.

Maricopa Community Colleges (MCCCD) 2020-2021 Associate in Arts, Fine Arts (AAFA) – Art

Description/Purpose of the Degree

The Maricopa County Community College District Associate in Arts, Fine Arts (AAFA) - Art degree requires a minimum of 60 semester credits for the program of study. The degree includes the following components:

- I. Required Courses
- II. Restricted Electives
- III. Arizona General Education Curriculum for Arts (AGEC-A)
- IV. MCCCD Additional Requirements (Oral Communication and Critical Reading)
- V. General Electives (if needed to reach minimum credits for degree)

The AAFA - Art degree is governed by the MCCCD General Academic Policies for Transfer Degrees.

The AAFA - Art degree provides the first two years of a four-year curriculum for students who wish to specialize in fine arts, including painting, ceramics, textiles, jewelry, sculpture, metals, photography, and drawing. This degree offers an emphasis in creative problem-solving that is required in most career fields. With an associate degree, students may pursue a career as a practicing artist. With a bachelor or graduate degree in fine arts, students may also pursue a career in museums, galleries, community-based art organizations, or art instruction.

The AAFA - Art degree is designed for students planning to transfer to four-year colleges and universities. In general, the components of the degree meet requirements for majors in the Fine Arts. The degree is designed to prepare students to meet selective admission criteria for programs such as the Bachelor of Fine Arts, which may require a portfolio or performance requirement.

In most cases, courses used to satisfy the MCCCD AAFA – Art will apply to general university graduation requirements of the majors that align with AAFA - Art degree; however, students need to be aware of any specific requirements of their intended focus at the university to be sure they select courses that will meet them. Information regarding the articulation of the AAFA - Art degree with majors at the Arizona public universities can be accessed via the following website: www.aztransfer.com

Program Notes

Students must earn a grade of C or better in all courses in the program.

Students who wish to transfer to an art school should contact an art faculty member at their institution for more information.

This program will be replaced by: AAFA/8311 Associate in Arts, Fine Arts, Emphasis in Art

Description/Purpose of the Degree

The Maricopa County Community College District Associate in Arts, Fine Arts (AAFA) - Art degree requires a minimum of 60 semester credits for the program of study. The degree includes the following components:

- I. Required Courses
- II. Restricted Electives
- III. Arizona General Education Curriculum for Arts (AGEC-A)
- IV. MCCCD Additional Requirements (Oral Communication and Critical Reading)
- V. General Electives (if needed to reach minimum credits for degree)

The AAFA - Art degree is governed by the MCCCD General Academic Policies for Transfer Degrees.

The AAFA - Art degree provides the first two years of a four-year curriculum for students who wish to specialize in fine arts, including painting, ceramics, textiles, jewelry, sculpture, metals, photography, and drawing. This degree offers an emphasis in creative problem-solving that is required in most career fields. With an associate degree, students may pursue a career as a practicing artist. With a bachelor or graduate degree in fine arts, students may also pursue a career in museums, galleries, community-based art organizations, or art instruction.

The AAFA - Art degree is designed for students planning to transfer to four-year colleges and universities. In general, the components of the degree meet requirements for majors in the Fine Arts. The degree is designed to prepare students to meet selective admission criteria for programs such as the Bachelor of Fine Arts, which may require a portfolio or performance requirement.

In most cases, courses used to satisfy the MCCCD AAFA – Art will apply to general university graduation requirements of the majors that align with AAFA - Art degree; however, students need to be aware of any specific requirements of their intended focus at the university to be sure they select courses that will meet them.
